Graduation speakers urge:
Welcome others, welcome change

Welcome strangers as a way of life, approach the future with an open mind for change, apply your learning ... and heartfelt "Thanks!" were the messages of Graduation Day 2008 at Manchester College.

The College awarded a Master of Accountancy, 153 Bachelor of Science degrees, 37 Bachelor of Arts degrees, two associate degrees and two honorary degrees to Loren Finnell '64 and Donald E. Miller '51x on a cool, breezy afternoon ... speeches and more >

Who was your favorite professor?

We asked graduating seniors in the Class of 2008, "Who was your favorite professor?"

The response was so tremendous, we started a web page to tell their stories.

What do students FIND@MC?

Leland Shaw
Angola, Ind
Class of '09

"I found an opportunity to succeed. With as dedicated as the professors and staff are to students' success not only in college, but also after graduation, I know that after I leave I'll be ahead of the curve."

Two more Manchester scholars to teach abroad as Fulbrights

One is a free spirit with glorious voice, a student of martial arts whose passion for environmental service runs as deep as his certainty that his calling is to teach history to high school students.

The other methodically approaches his future with service fulfilled in another language, jamming a full school year and three January sessions abroad into his four-year, high-honor bachelor's degree.

Two more Manchester College graduates join the elite roster of Fulbright scholarship recipients... more >
