Manchester "comfortably full" with 23% surge in new students

Manchester College is enrolling its largest class in more than 25 years, as it adds faculty, class sections and classrooms and fills residence halls. "We're comfortably full," declares Executive Vice President David F. McFadden, with praise for the 18-month enrollment initiative that engaged the entire College community ... more

Manchester is a great choice, leading college guides tell students

Class sizes and faculty who invite close connections with students continue to cement Manchester as a "Best College" in the U.S. News & World Report rankings.

The popular guide for college-bound students ranks Manchester 18th among Midwest schools that focus on undergraduate degrees. The Princeton Review also lists Manchester College as a "Best in the Midwest." ... more

$1 million MC-led initiative unites area agencies, groups in Eel River clean-up

A coalition of Manchester College, Wabash and Miami county conservation agencies, and at least 17 other groups are embarking on a $1 million initiative to improve the water quality of a 30-mile stretch of the Eel River.

The collaboration is an outgrowth of Eel River fish research by MC students and faculty and leadership by biologist Dr. Jerry Sweeten '75, director of environmental studies. ... more

What do students FIND@MC?

Emily Toole
Osceola, Ind.
Class of '10

"I found my soundtrack. I love music, and my mind is full of songs that remind me of my experiences. Most are happy, some are full of confusion. Some energize me, and some ground me. They remind me of who I've grown to be since starting college."
